

CHASES HUSBAND AGAIN FOR THEFT

Mrs. Davenport Lincoln Once Lured Him to the Waldorf and Had Him Sentenced for Six Months.

HE WAS RELEASED TO-DAY.

Now Seeks to Have Him Punished for Stealing $20 from Mother, but He Was Whisked Out of Her Way on Another Charge.

Wife, mother-in-law and a brace of detectives played hide and seek all over Queens County to-day for Davenport Lincoln, who comes from a well-known family of Bensonhurst. Lincoln finished to-day a six months' term in the Kings County Penitentiary for the theft of a bicycle and was arrested as he walked out of the institution. He was taken to Long Island City and arraigned before Magistrate Connerdon, charged with stealing $20 from his mother-in-law. The lady, Mrs. Margaret Vallaire, was not in court to prosecute, so Magistrate Connerdon said:

"As long as it is your mother-in-law, I'll let you go."

Lincoln left the room with a broad smile, but at the door a detective from Jamaica, L. I., arrested him and carried him off to Far Rockaway to be arraigned before Magistrate Healey on a charge of another bicycle theft.

He was hardly gone when Mrs. Vallaire and young Mrs. Lincoln reached the court. They were highly indignant over the young man's discharge.

"Think of all the trouble I went to to having him arrested," said the pretty, blond bride, who is responsible for her husband's six months in jail and is anxious to see that he gets more.

"When he ran away after stealing mamma's $20, I made an engagement to meet him at the Waldorf-Astoria and had a detective with me. He was arrested, but they prosecuted him then for stealing a bicycle. He will have to go to jail for what he stole from us. That $20 was not half of what he took. He just kept papa's pockets empty all the time."

The bride and her mother started for Far Rockaway on Lincoln's trail in case the Magistrate there might fail to hold him.

HANGED HIMSELF IN COUNTY JAIL.

Schwelack, Accused of Burglary, Makes Noose of Chain from Cot and Swings Himself Off.

Joseph Schwelack, in the Queens County Jail for burglary, made his second attempt at suicide there to-day. He detached the chain from his cot, made a noose of it and swung himself from the cross-bar of his cell door. Yells from his fellow-prisoners brought Keeper Garvey, who took him down and called Dr. Platt, the prison physician. Schwelack was not badly injured.

Early Monday morning James Carey, a saloon-keeper at Eyewitness, N. Y., caught Schwelack in his place and set him on fire for three hours until a thirty policeman turned up. Carey weighs over 300 pounds, and in the light of subsequent events Dr. Platt thinks the setting on him may have injured Schwelack mentally as well as physically.

The prisoner almost succeeded in hanging himself Tuesday, and yesterday he threw the suit into a panic by lighting a paper match in which he told his fellow-prisoners he had a stick of dynamite. The irrepressible Schwelack will be put in a strait-jacket.

EMPEROR WASHES FEET OF SUBJECTS.

Austria's Ruler Observes Ancient Holy Thursday Rite in Presence of Diplomats.

VIENNA, April 9.—Emperor Joseph, assisted by eleven archbishops, in the Hofburg to-day performed the ancient Holy Thursday ceremony of washing the feet of twelve aged men whose ages ranged from ninety-two to eighty-nine, aggregating 1,080 years.

The Emperor first placed dishes of food before each man, which the arch removed immediately afterward, the viands being sent later to the men's homes.

The ceremony ended with the Emperor hanging a bag containing thirty pieces of silver around each man's neck. There was a large gathering of court, diplomatic and military officials present, including Ambassador Storer and Mrs. Storer, Second Secretary Rives, Military Attaché Harris, the British Ambassador, Sir C. R. Plunkett, and Larry Plunkett and the Duchess of Marlborough.

MRS. DAVENPORT-LINCOLN, WHO IS AGAIN SEEKING HUSBAND'S ARREST.

NOTABLES AT BIER OF MRS. PORTER.

French Officials and Diplomats Attend Funeral of the Wife of the United States Ambassador.

PARIS, April 9.—The funeral of Mrs. Porter, wife of the United States Ambassador, held to-day at the American Church in the Rue de Berri, was an impressive tribute, the head of the French Government, the members of the Diplomatic Corps and many representatives of the American colony participating.

The front of the church was draped with black and the walls and pillars of the interior were also hung with black draperies. The chancel was filled with tall palms, while immediately in front of the altar rested the casket, hidden beneath a profusion of beautiful floral offerings.

Ambassador Porter was accompanied by his daughter, Elsie. Rev. Dr. Thurber conducted the simple services. In his invocation Dr. Thurber made a feeling reference to the beauty of the character of Mrs. Porter. The choir sang Mrs. Porter's favorite hymns, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "Lead Kindly Light."

After the public service the casket was borne to the mortuary chapel adjoining the church, where it will remain until its removal to America.

ALL HOPE GONE FROM ROSE QUINN

At Nineteen She Sees Only Life Imprisonment and Blames All Her Troubles on Her Love for a Soldier.

DESERTED BY SISTERS

"They Won't Even Come and See Me in My Utter Wretchedness," Moans the Prisoner in Her Cell in the Tombs.

"They say I will be in prison all my life." With a despairing look of hunted misery on her face Rose Quinn, the young Irish girl found guilty in the Court of General Sessions yesterday of murdering her baby by drowning it in a pond in Central Park, told the sad story of her short but bitter existence to an Evening World reporter to-day.

After being sent back to the Tombs last night the girl sat silently in her cell speaking to no one, the awful sentence of life imprisonment crushing all hope.

"I wish I had never left Ireland," said the girl, nervously tearing a linen handkerchief which she held in her hand, and faking her blue eyes helplessly on the face of her visitor. "If I could only go back to Ireland instead of going to this dreadful prison!"

"When I left Ireland I thought that everything great was in America. My sisters and I used to lie awake at nights and talk of how we would make our fortunes here and come back some day with lots of money for our father. My mother died when I was eight years old and since that awful trouble I have wished so many times that I was with her."

Over in Roosevelt, County of Lettrina, a bare-footed Irish girl used to run and play with her two sisters over the green fields, and dream of the future in store for them. Now one of the sisters, though not yet twenty years old, is sentenced to life imprisonment for murdering her baby. The two sisters with whom she made her plans for life in free America have deserted her.

"They have refused even to come and see me," said Rose, wiping the tears from her eyes. "I haven't a friend to help me."

"When I came to America with my sisters and I was so poor, but I didn't know much about the ways of this country. I fell in love like most girls, I suppose, only I can't bear to spend all my life in prison. I'm only nineteen years old and it will be a long time before I die."

The girl acts as though dazed, and only rouses herself from her misery when she is asked what she would do if she were free. She would go to her father and mother and live with them, she said. It is an awful thing for a girl to come to a strange country, then fall in love, be deserted, have her sisters turn from her and then be sentenced to life imprisonment. It would be better if I had died in Ireland, where I was happy."

MAY RID FLATBUSH OF MOSQUITOES.

Dr. Junor Has a Liquid Annihilator and President Swanstrom Is Interested in His Scheme.

Dr. Konrad F. Junor, of Flatbush, who makes the astounding assertion that he can annihilate mosquitoes from Flatbush Island last summer, called upon Borough President Swanstrom, of Brooklyn, today to interest him in his mosquito annihilator. This is a liquid to be sprinkled on the surface of ponds and ditches.

President Swanstrom became so interested in the scheme that he promised to supply the doctor with a wagon this summer. The doctor will load the wagon with tanks of annihilator and sail out to attempt the enormous job of killing the mosquitoes in Flatbush.
